Exalted Ruler, Clint Tompkins

I want to thank all of our members, volunteers, and officers who continue to make this such a great Lodge. Our success comes from the members who are willing to step up, volunteer, and get involved. We have a lot happening this month, and I look forward to seeing everyone at the Clampett Olympics, First Responders Night, and the many events during Patriotism Week. These are great opportunities to enjoy fellowship, recognize those who serve our community and country, and spend time together as a Lodge family.

Unfortunately, we also experienced a frustrating situation this summer. Our backflow valves were stolen twice by vandals. These thefts cost the Lodge money and create unnecessary work and repairs. If anyone has information about these thefts or witnessed anything suspicious, please report it to the police. Your information may help prevent another theft.

As we continue through the year, I encourage everyone—especially our newer members—to get involved. Attend a meeting, volunteer at an event, join a committee, or simply ask how you can help. “If you see a need, take the lead.” Thank you for everything you do for Phoenix Elks Lodge #335. I look forward to seeing you around the Lodge and at our many September events.

Esteemed Leading Knight, Tyler Vanwey

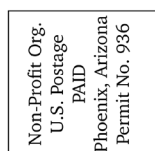

Well, brothers and sisters, September is here—and if you're anything like me, you're wondering how summer managed to disappear without taking the electric bill with it. As your Leading Knight, I'd like to begin by reminding everyone of the important things we can count on at the Lodge: good fellowship, good food, good friends, and at least one person asking, “Who's in charge of this?” while standing directly next to the person who is actually in charge. That's what makes the Elks special.

September officially means fall, although here in Phoenix, Mother Nature apparently didn't get the memo. Around the rest of the country, people are putting on sweaters, drinking pumpkin spice lattes, and enjoying crisp mornings. Here, we celebrate the first day of fall by turning the air conditioner down two more degrees. But cooler weather—or at least the idea of cooler weather—is a great reason to get together at the Lodge. There's nothing better than spending time with fellow Elks, catching up with old friends, meeting new members, and enjoying the kind of fellowship that makes this Lodge feel like home.

One thing I've learned as Leading Knight is that the Lodge has a mysterious source of power. It isn't electricity. It isn't coffee. It's volunteers. Unfortunately, volunteers have one major flaw: they occasionally need to sleep. So if you see someone working hard at the Lodge, don't just say, “Looks like you've got your hands full.” That's how you accidentally become part of the committee. Seriously, though, everything we accomplish depends on members stepping up. Whether it's helping with an event, working in the kitchen, supporting a fundraiser, welcoming a new member, or simply showing up with a good attitude, every contribution matters. And if you're wondering whether we need help with something, the answer is probably yes.

The Elks have always been about more than meetings and minutes. We're about people. We're about sitting down together after a long day. We're about sharing a laugh. We're about checking on a brother or sister who hasn't been around lately. We're about supporting our community and taking care of our own. Sometimes the most important thing we do at the Lodge isn't on an agenda. It's the conversation at the table. It's the handshake at the door. It's the joke that was probably funnier the third time somebody told it. And it's knowing that when you need a friend, there are people here who will answer the phone.

Articles and Photo Submissions for Next Month's Edition via the QR Code or email 335elkstracks@gmail.com. Deadline for submissions to Tracks is the 10th of each month by 5pm.

As we head into September, I encourage everyone to get involved, bring a friend, introduce yourself to someone you don't know, and enjoy your Lodge. And remember: if you come to the Lodge hungry, that's your own fault. If you leave hungry, that's a committee problem. Let's make September a month filled with friendship, laughter, service, and plenty of reasons to come back through those doors. Thank you for allowing me to serve as your Leading Knight. I'm looking forward to a great month at the Phoenix Elks Lodge. And if you see me wandering around the Lodge looking confused, please don't worry. I probably know exactly what I'm doing. Probably everything you do.

As you're enjoying the rest of the summer, don't forget this is also prime Arizona scorpion season. Shake out your shoes, check your towels, and maybe think twice before reaching into that storage box that's been sitting in the garage since last year. We'd much rather see you at the Lodge than hear about your latest encounter with one of our eight-legged neighbors.

If you've been thinking about volunteering, September is a great time to jump in. The more hands we have helping, the more fun we all get to have—and the less work falls on the same dedicated few.

Thank you for continuing to support the principles of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity. Because of each of you, our Lodge continues to be a place where members become friends and friends become family. Stay cool, stay hydrated, watch out for scorpions...and we'll see you at the Lodge! Here's wishing everyone a fun, safe, and laughter-filled September. Stay cool, stay involved, and if you can fry an egg on the sidewalk, at least invite somebody over for breakfast.

Esteemed Loyal Knight, Jeff Beasley

September is a month of remembrance, patriotism and service, and Phoenix Elks Lodge #335 has many opportunities for our members to come together.

Over the past several months, our Veterans Committee, Picnic Committee and many volunteers have continued to serve our Lodge and community. This month, that spirit continues as we remember those lost on September 11, honor those who serve during our Law and Order Night, recognize our firefighters and first responders, and celebrate Patriot Week.

Patriot Week is a time to remember the values and sacrifices that helped shape our country. I hope our members will take part, bring their families and help us continue these important traditions.

September is also filled with many other happenings at the Lodge. Whether you attend a ceremony, volunteer, enjoy an event or simply spend time with fellow Elks, there are many ways to be involved.

Our Lodge is strongest when we show up for one another and for our community.

I hope to see many of you throughout September as we remember, celebrate, serve and enjoy the fellowship that makes us special.

God Bless America and God Bless our Phoenix Elks family.

A September Reminder: Brotherly Love!

My station as Lecturing Knight is dedicated to Brotherly Love. As we move into September, I want to remind us all of the beautiful teaching behind our Elk motto: “The faults of our members we write upon the sands; their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory.” Let’s make a conscious effort to practice this teaching as much as possible.

Smile at one another. Reach out and grasp a hand in friendship. Speak words of kindness and encouragement. Choose compassion over criticism. And most of all... be happy. We never truly know what someone else may be going through. A smile, a kind word, or a simple gesture of friendship may mean more than we realize.

As we enter September, let’s make our Lodge a place where Brotherly Love isn’t just something we talk about—it’s something we live. Be kind. Be welcoming. Be a friend. Be the difference.

Xmas In July!

Submitted by Jeff Beasley, Esteemed Loyal Knight

During the first annual Christmas in July Charity event; members, volunteers, sponsors, and community partners raised more than $2,000, with over $1,000 directly benefiting the Elks National Dictionary Program, helping place dictionaries into the hands of local students.

More than 100 people attended the evening, enjoying great food, music, dancing, laughter, and fellowship while supporting a meaningful cause. The event was made even more special through the support of our community partners, including Miss Arizona USA Kaitlyn Humphrey and Desert Car Care of Cave Creek, who helped raise awareness for the Dictionary Program and the charitable work of the Elks. Their involvement reflects the strong partnerships Phoenix Elks Lodge #335 continues to build throughout our community.

The Dictionary Committee did an outstanding job organizing the event from start to finish. Under the leadership of Chair Stephanie Beasley, the committee created a festive Christmas celebration in the middle of July that was welcoming, fun, and meaningful for everyone who attended.

Reflecting on the evening, Stephanie shared:

“This was truly a team effort. From everyone who baked treats, donated, decorated, volunteered, attended, and supported the event, thank you. We met our goals while creating an evening where our members and community came together to celebrate, laugh, and support local children. That’s what Elkdome is all about, and I couldn’t be more proud of everyone who helped make this event such a success.”

A heartfelt thank you goes out to everyone who volunteered their time, donated baked goods, purchased tickets, sponsored the event, decorated, served, entertained, or simply attended to support the cause. Every contribution helped make the evening a success.

Sea Shell Painting!

Submitted by Heather Leal, Editor

Our Lodge members recently enjoyed a fun and creative Seashell Crafting afternoon, all while supporting a wonderful cause; Thanksgiving baskets! Hosted by Lodge Esquire Becky Simons and Linda Thompson, the event brought members and guests together for an afternoon of decoupage, conversation, and plenty of creativity.

Participants created their own unique seashell pieces while enjoying an assortment of tasty treats generously provided by our Lodge bakers. It was a relaxed and cheerful afternoon filled with friendship, laughter, and some beautiful handmade creations.

Best of all, the event raised approximately $350 for the Lodge’s Thanksgiving Baskets charity, helping support local families during the holiday season.

A heartfelt thank you to Becky and Linda for organizing such an enjoyable event, to our bakers for the delicious goodies, and to everyone who attended and helped make the afternoon such a success.

Elks Kids Bowling Day!

Submitted by Judy Peters Elks Kids Committee Chair

The Kids Elks Committee recently hosted a fun-filled day at Let It Roll, where the children enjoyed a fantastic bowling experience. Although 32 kids initially signed up, 22 enthusiastic participants attended, along with four adults who joined in the bowling fun.

Judy Peters, Chairperson of the Kids Elks Committee, was present, along with dedicated volunteers Sandy Bailey and Diane Sullivan. The event included two hours of bowling, with plenty of pizza, popcorn, and soda to keep everyone energized and happy.

The kids had an absolute blast, and it was heartwarming to see them interacting so positively with the adults while enjoying a wonderful sense of community and camaraderie.
